

It my understanding that the FCC is considering changing stations like K-Love to another format. I am against such changes as one of the reasons my family enjoys K-love is its dedication to wholesome family values through its music and even in their news. To loose a station like K-Love would be a disgrace. Please do not chnange

K-Love, many people would be lost without the encouraging and inspiring music heard daily across our great nation.